License for (name(s) of collection(s)): _____

should we reference your printing service? Yes: No:

Terms and Conditions:

- 1) The printing license grants you the permission to print our models (not minifigures) and sell the prints. This license is limited exclusively to the specifically listed collection(s) above. Prints can be sold at events, in shops, as well as in the mail-order business, etc.
- 2) All commercial licenses strictly do not include minifigures! Selling printed minifigures (like the Insurgents) is therefore not included in any of our licenses.
- 3) The license does not include forwarding or selling the STL-files!
- 4) The license does not include recasting printed models by making silicon-molds followed by resin casting or similar practices.

Commercial Printing License

- 5) When selling the prints, it is always necessary to refer back to our website on each individual product page: (<https://www.warscenery.com/shop>) and include the information that you print under an official War Scenery printing license.
 - 6) Care must be taken to ensure that the prints are sold to end consumers in good quality.
 - 7) A resale or transition of this license is not possible.
 - 8) If you cannot use photos of actual printed models as product images right away, you can send a request to use our renders with a War Scenery Logo watermark until the photos available. These rendered images of our models, that we use on our website for example, may not be used in any ads like Facebook ads.
 - 9) The license is limited to one year but an unlimited number of prints in that time. After the year has passed on the 26.09.2024 you can request a prolongation of the license.
 - 10) Violations of any of these rules results in the withdrawal of the license.
